Her's was a devout and prayerful family.

Love for prayer and for the poor was instilled in all the five children right from their childhood.

It was on Easter Tuesday that Sophie heard a soft voice while she was resting in bed....

*“ My Peace I leave you ,
My Peace I give you.”*

This filled Sophie with an inexplicable joy and peace that remained with her forever.

It was not long before Sophie and Marianne felt called to belong wholly to Jesus by becoming nuns.

*Sophie took the name Sister Veronica of the Passion.

A Congregation is born:
Saint Joseph's Carmel
Bayonne, France, July 16 1868

Attuned to God's will, Mother Veronica set out to begin the Carmel for the Missions.

The first house of the Apostolic Carmel began in Bayonne, France on 16th July 1868 the feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel

Seeing the need to begin a Carmel for the missions Mother Veronica sent three of her sisters namely Sisters Elias, Marie DesAnge, Mary of St. Joseph to India.

The cradle: St. Ann's Convent
Mangalore, India, Nov 19 1870

*The Apostolic Carmel was established at
St. Anne's Convent,
Mangalore on

The background features a series of overlapping, semi-transparent, colorful geometric shapes that resemble stylized, layered triangles or trapezoids. The colors include shades of yellow, green, blue, purple, pink, and red, creating a vibrant, multi-colored effect. The shapes are arranged in a way that they appear to be stacked or layered, with some overlapping others, creating a sense of depth and movement. The overall composition is abstract and modern.
