

On 3rd of May, Carmel bid adieu to Tr. Swati Das who will be retiring after a dedicated tenure of 32 years. Tr. Swati Das was the Head of the English Department and has been an affable driving force behind the institutions' many cultural endeavors. She has been the Chief Editor of the school's annual magazine in the recent past and was part of the teacher's editorial board since many years. Swati Das shared an admirable rapport with her students and has been a mentor to many guiding them in their careers. As a vocal administrator, capable and astute guide she Tr. Swati Das will surely be missed by the management, staff and students.

A special assembly was held in her honour, to show our love and appreciation for all that she has done for Carmel. A prayer dance, invoking the Lord's blessings was followed by a beautiful song performed by the HMM group to mark this occasion was performed by HMM group. A dance by Synergy was also a part of the assembly.
