

On 2nd February 2019, as a part of Carmel Convent's outreach program, the students of class IX C along with Sr. Jenifa and teachers went for the community service to the Nuh Village in Haryana. Carmel students interacted with the village children. The children of the village enjoyed interacting with the students as poems were recited and games were played.