

CARMEL CONVENT SCHOOL, NEW DELHI

Carmel bids farewell to Mrs Renu Dhawan and Mrs Nancy Roney

On 11th May, Carmel Convent School, New Delhi organised a farewell programme to bid adieu to our biology teacher Ma'am Renu Dhawan and Mrs. Nancy Roney.

Ma'am Renu Dhawan an exceptional Biology and Yoga teacher and one of the pillars of Carmel has retired after 37 years of dedicated service to our school. Working with the environment is her passion and she has been instrumental in putting up several environmentally friendly projects in school one of which was the setting up of the Environment club of Carmel. Ma'am Renu is an extremely spiritual person who has touched the lives of her students and colleagues with her empathy and compassion.

Mrs Nancy Roney has been serving Carmel for the last 27 years, working diligently and selflessly in the administrative department. Her cheerful face, gentle demeanour and sense of humour endeared her to all.

The farewell assembly was put up by the students of class ten. In accordance with the long-standing Carmel tradition, the programme commenced with a prayer dance. This was followed by a speech by Zoe Isheetta Joshi, thanking Ma'am Renu for her bounteous years of service to the school.

Next Adiba Tanvir expressed the school's gratitude to Mrs. Nancy Roney for her sincere assistance in the Administrative office.

Divya and Aanandita raised their melodious voices to the tunes of "You raised me up", which was followed by a speech by Ma'am Renu and our principal Sr. Tina Maria. The programme concluded with the singing of the school anthem.

