

English Intra-class Activities – class VII & VIII

PEN IT DOWN AND ACT IT OUT – class VII was a story writing and acting event where each team of class VII needed to create a story on the topics given (Empathy, Peer Pressure, Need VS Greed, Praising and celebrating our lives). The intra-class event was held on 12th of December 2023. This competition gave the students a platform to engage in creative writing and to work in teams. Three groups were awarded the prizes for their spectacular performance.

STEAL THE SPOTLIGHT – class VIII an intra-class competition for class VIII was held on 12th December 2023. The participants were required to choose any dialogue from Jane Austen's novels and enact with utmost creativity and dramatic appropriateness. The competition was cutthroat which kept both the audience and judges engaged. Overall 3 positions were given to the winners along with 1 best costume. The competition not only allowed the students to showcase their love for literature but also to understand Austen as a novelist.

