

BOOK WEEK - 2024

The Annual Book Week was inaugurated in Carmel on the World Book Day, 23rd April 2024 and continued till 25th April 2024. During the period the school organised a host of activities to invigorate interest of the students in reading and learning.

The morning assembly broadcast over the intercom drew awareness on the cognitive, psychological and various other benefits of reading. A book fair was organized to encourage students to engage in the marvelous works of authors of various genres, starting from classics like Gitanjali by Rabindranath Nath Tagore to books written by Colleen Hoover. text

The dynamic collection of the “Book Fair” included books of Chetan Bhagat, Dan Brown, Sudha Murti, Agatha Christie, books on political events, accounts of famous personalities, comics and small stories of Shakespear. Students discovered various hues of literature and dived deep into the realms of reading. A ‘Reading Time’ was observed on 25th of April 2024 where students devoted half an hour to reading.

