

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

Class 4&5.

19 Nov'24

The Primary section of Carmel Convent School, New Delhi celebrated their annual day on 19th November, 2024 in the school's auditorium. The Principal, Sr Elica Rebello welcomed the parents to the Annual Day 2024-25. The school invited Ms. Sangeeta Krishna as the Chief Guest. She is a former Principal of Banyan Tree School and an educator par excellence

The students of classes 4 and 5 presented a musical rendition of the famous Charlie and the Chocolate Factory by Roald Dahl based on the theme 'Magic is Within You'.

The programme started with a prayer dance. The musical play was an amalgamation of various dances, songs and drama. The students performed Garidi dance, Oompa Loompa dance, Doll dance and Squirrel dance. The choreography was lively, enhancing key musical numbers such as "Pure Imagination". The ensemble displayed impressive coordination, making each scene engaging and visually appealing.

The student performance of "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory" was a captivating showcase of talent, creativity, and teamwork. The cast brought Roald Dahl's beloved story to life with vibrant costumes and dynamic staging.

The leads shone brightly; the portrayal of Charlie was heartfelt and innocent, perfectly embodying the character's optimism. Willy Wonka, played with eccentric flair, captivated the audience with charm and humor. The supporting roles, from the overindulgent Augustus Gloop and Violet to the spoiled Veruca Salt and techie Mike added depth and energy. The choir added feelings into the performances with their melodious singing.

Overall, the students' dedication and hard work were evident in their performances, which were met with enthusiastic applause from a delighted audience.

The programme ended with the grand finale dance on a medley of foot tapping songs with Wonka lollipops, Candy sticks, ribbons and hoopla hoops as props and the Chief Guest's speech. The Annual Day concluded with the School Anthem

